Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Executive Assistant / Paralegal position within your Legal Department. With a solid background in legal assistance, administrative support, and project coordination, I bring a well-rounded skill set that aligns closely with the demands of this role.

In my previous experience within the legal field, I have supported attorneys and senior leadership by managing contracts, conducting legal research, and preparing key documents such as resolutions and correspondence. I have also coordinated departmental activities, tracked action items, and ensured timely follow-through on critical tasks. My ability to manage competing priorities while maintaining a high level of accuracy has been central to my success.

I am particularly drawn to this opportunity because of your organization's global humanitarian impact. I value work that contributes to meaningful change, and I am motivated by environments where precision, collaboration, and purpose intersect. I am confident in my ability to serve as a reliable liaison across teams, maintain organized legal systems, and provide proactive support to the General Counsel.

I pride myself on being detail-oriented, dependable, and adaptable. I am comfortable working independently, handling confidential information with discretion, and engaging with stakeholders at all levels. I am also eager to continue learning and expanding my knowledge in legal operations and governance.

I would welcome the opportunity to contribute to your team and support the important work your organization is doing.

Kind regards,

Nolizwi
